FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Discussion/Performance: Tim Spelios and Matt Freedman A Short History of the con-TRAP-tion-SET or Fly Swatters on Calf Heads

Freedman and Spelios will tackle music, art and the difficulty of doing more than one thing at a time will be. The history of the drum set will be discussed as will taking pictures, making collages, walking around the city, old books and the tragedy of Ernie Broglio. Spelios will play drums when he is not talking-he cannot do both at the same time, unless you count singing Okie from Muskogee. Freedman will attempt to draw pictures and to draw Tim out at the same time.

Tim Spelios is based in Brooklyn. He has exhibited at Exit Art, The Drawing Center, Sculpture Center, Smack Mellon Studios, Long Island University, Pierogi Gallery, and Parkers Box among others. Spelios teaches at Pratt Institute, and taught at The University of Illinois at the Phillips Collection in D.C. Caroline Cox and Tim Spelios, co-founded and ran Flipside Gallery from 1996-2001.
